International Programme on Elimination of Child Labour

*19. SHRI MURLIDHAR CHANDRA-KANT BHANDARE :

SHRI SUSHILKUMAR SAMBHAJI RAO SHINDE : Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is fact that as a part of the 13th World Congress on occupational safety and health held at New Delhi in April this year, an International Programme on elimination of Child labour wag launched;

(b) if so, what are the details of the programme;

(c) what were the main observations and suggestions made during the Cong ress; and

(d whether any comprehensive programme has been drawn out in the light thereof for abolition of Child labour which is one of the fundamental goals of the ILO?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI PABAN SINGH GHATOWAR) : (a) to (d) As part of the XIII World Congress on Occupational Safety and Health held in New Delhi recently a Workshop on the Hazards to the Safety and Health of Working Children was held under the International Programme on the Eliminations of Child Labour (IPEC). The IPEC was formally launched on January 20, 1993 based on the Memorandum of Understanding entered between the Government of India and the International Labour Organisation in the second quarter of 1992.

The IPEC is being executed by ILO with financial assistance from Germany and other donor countries. The programme has been launched with the objective of reducing the incidence of child lobour and its progressive elimination. The programme mainly seeks to complement the resources and the efforts made by the participating countries in order to enable them, within the context of their national policies, to promote conditions for achieving this objective. It also envisages bringing about an increased awareness in the international community for this purpose. A major component of IPEC is to encourage, promote and support voluntary and other organisations in implementing action-oriented programmes at field level, within the framework of national policies and programmes related to child labour.
